

As you navigate your MBA EL coursework, you will have many opportunities to share your growth as a school leader. Alongside the content knowledge you are gaining, you will also gain experience in other “soft” skills that impact your success as a leader. The document below will be scored by yourself, your university coach and your site supervisor at each formal phase gate meeting. You should see growth overtime as you are offered opportunities to gain knowledge and experience in each area.

DISPOSITIONS: Professional dispositions are a vital element of administrator preparation and are the expected behaviors of all educators. These are the values, actions, attitudes, and beliefs of educators as they interact with students, families, community members, and professional colleagues. Professional dispositions are a vital element of administrator preparation and are the expected behaviors of all educators.

Criteria	4	3	2	1
Commitment to professional program	Constantly demonstrates a pattern of professional behavior with respect to issues such as regular attendance, no tardiness, and task completion of the highest quality.	Regularly demonstrates a pattern of professional behavior with respect issues such as attendance, tardiness and high quality task completion	At times demonstrates unprofessional behavior with respect to absences, tardiness, and late or incomplete tasks.	Consistently demonstrates a pattern of unprofessional behaviors with respect absences, tardiness and late or incomplete tasks.
Positive Attitude	Consistently interacts appropriately and positively with others and demonstrates a respect for all.	Regularly interacts appropriately and positively with others and demonstrates a respect for all.	At times interacts negatively with others and shows a lack of respect for others.	Interactions and attitude may be negative, demeaning, sarcastic or otherwise inappropriate.
Class Participation	Consistently participates and contributes to the class. Supports the group in project completion.	Regularly participates and contributes to the class. Supports the group and project work.	Seldom participates in class and is indifferent to group work and projects.	Never participates or contributes. Does not add to group work.
Professional Character	Consistently demonstrates high expectations, evaluates self with critical lens and strives for continual improvement.	Regularly demonstrates high expectations and evaluates self with a critical lens and strives for improvement.	At times has low expectations, seldom evaluates self and lacks a passion for education.	Demonstrates no or low expectations. Does not self-evaluate.

Attitude of Service	Consistently demonstrates a commitment to serve others.	Regularly demonstrates a commitment to serve others.	At times behaves in a way that lacks a commitment to serve others.	Does not demonstrate a commitment to serve others.
Ethical Interaction and Behavior	Consistently models personal integrity with interacting with others. Is honest, trustworthy and dependable.	Regularly models personal integrity with interacting with others. Is honest, trustworthy and dependable.	At times models personal integrity with interacting with others. Is not consistently honest, trustworthy and dependable.	Rarely models personal integrity with interacting with others. Is not honest, trustworthy and dependable.

Professional Ethics: Administrators are duly licensed professionals who possess dignity and reputation with high moral values as well as technical and professional competence in the practice of their profession. They strictly adhere to, observe, and practice this set of ethical and moral principles, standards, and values.

Criteria	4	3	2	1
Communicates effectively to promote well-being and success.	consistently communicates in a clear, concise, and timely manner, fostering a positive environment that contributes to the well-being and success of all stakeholders.	Generally, communicates effectively, with occasional lapses in clarity or timeliness, but overall contributes to the well-being and success of individuals and the organization.	communicates adequately but may struggle with clarity or timeliness, occasionally impacting the well-being and success of others.	struggles to communicate effectively, leading to frequent misunderstandings and negatively impacting the well-being and success of individuals and the organization.
Builds positive and professional relationships with others through frequent communication	consistently establishes and maintains positive professional relationships through frequent, open, and respectful communication.	Generally, builds positive and professional relationships, with occasional lapses in communication or professionalism.	struggles at times to establish and maintain positive, professional relationships due to challenges in communication or professionalism.	consistently fails to build positive and professional relationships through inadequate communication and unprofessional behavior.
Works in a collegial and collaborative manner with others.	consistently collaborates effectively, fostering a collegial environment that enhances teamwork and productivity.	Generally, works in a collegial and collaborative manner, with occasional lapses in teamwork or productivity.	struggles to collaborate effectively, occasionally hindering teamwork and productivity.	consistently fails to work in a collegial and collaborative manner, impeding teamwork and overall productivity.
Adheres to school, district, ethical and procedural requirements.	consistently and meticulously adheres to all school, district, ethical, and procedural requirements, demonstrating a strong commitment to professional standards.	Generally, adheres to requirements, with occasional oversights or minor deviations that do not significantly impact professional standards.	struggles to consistently adhere to requirements, with occasional significant deviations that may compromise professional standards.	consistently fails to adhere to school, district, ethical, and procedural requirements, demonstrating a lack of commitment to professional standards.

Upholds confidentiality.	consistently demonstrates a high level of commitment to upholding confidentiality, maintaining a secure and trustful environment.	Generally, upholds confidentiality, with occasional lapses that do not significantly compromise trust or security.	struggles to consistently uphold confidentiality, with occasional significant breaches that may impact trust and security.	consistently fails to uphold confidentiality, leading to severe breaches of trust and compromising the security of sensitive information.
--------------------------	---	--	--	---