

LATIN SCHOOL OF CHICAGO

Cell Phone Policy Survey Results

100 Percent of faculty believe students are distracted by smartphones daily

273 Notifications are received by students
on their phones daily

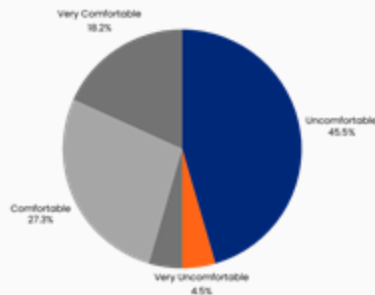

6 in 10 faculty believe smartphones have detrimental mental health effects on students

Cell phones may be confiscated and brought to the appropriate Dean or Upper School office if the device has been used in an inappropriate way in an instructional space.

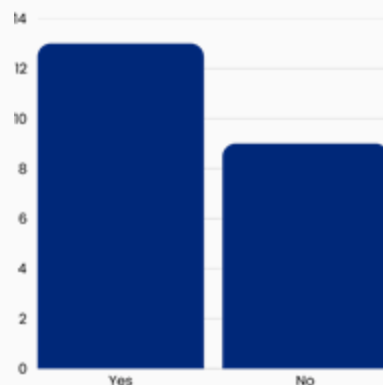

-Latin Student Handbook

54 percent of faculty are not familiar with the student policy

50% of faculty are uncomfortable confiscating a cellphone

Would faculty consider a smartphone ban?

While I would support such a ban for certain reasons, I would think it would only be fair to have the same sort of ban for faculty to set a good example.

——— “ ” ———

No. I think this would be an over reaction to an increasingly crucial part of students' lives.

——— “ ” ———

No, I believe everyone is entitled to have a phone with them in case of an emergency or to stay in touch with the world.

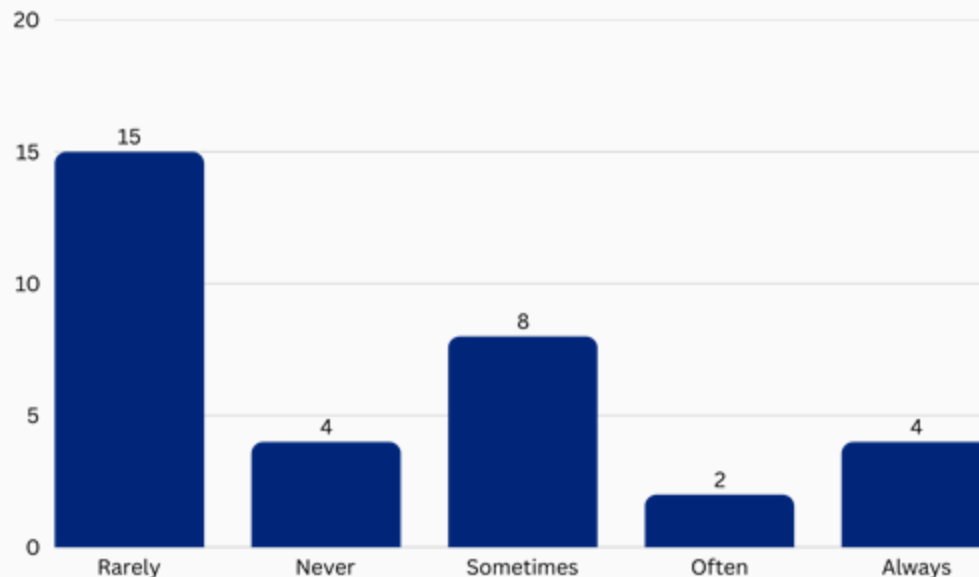

——— “ ” ———

Survey 2 – Nov. 2024 – 33 Respondents

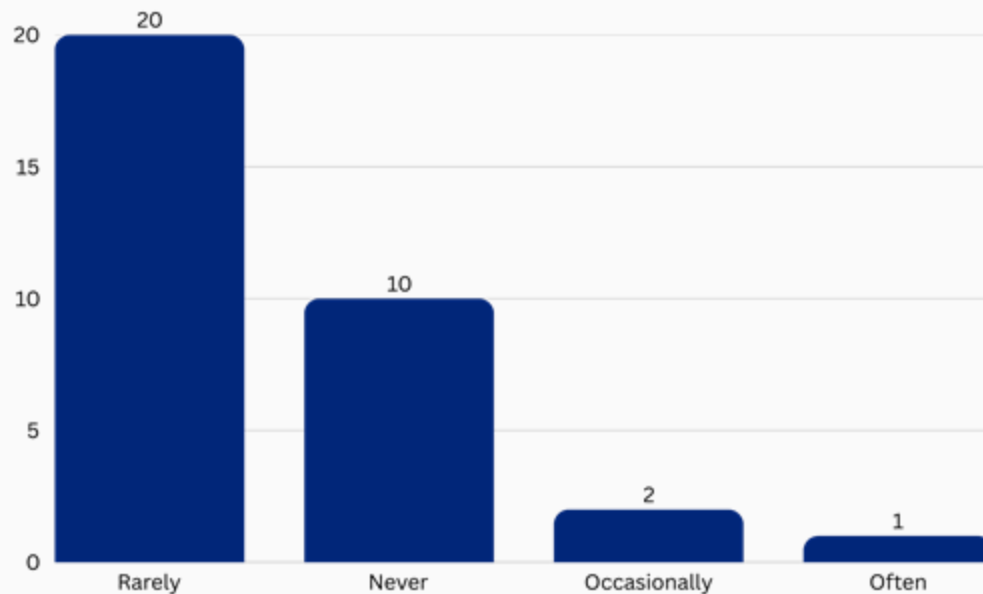

100%

Believe the new cell phone policy an improvement from last year's policy

How often do you need to remind students to place their cell phones in the container when they arrive to class?

How often have cell phones disrupted your classroom this semester?

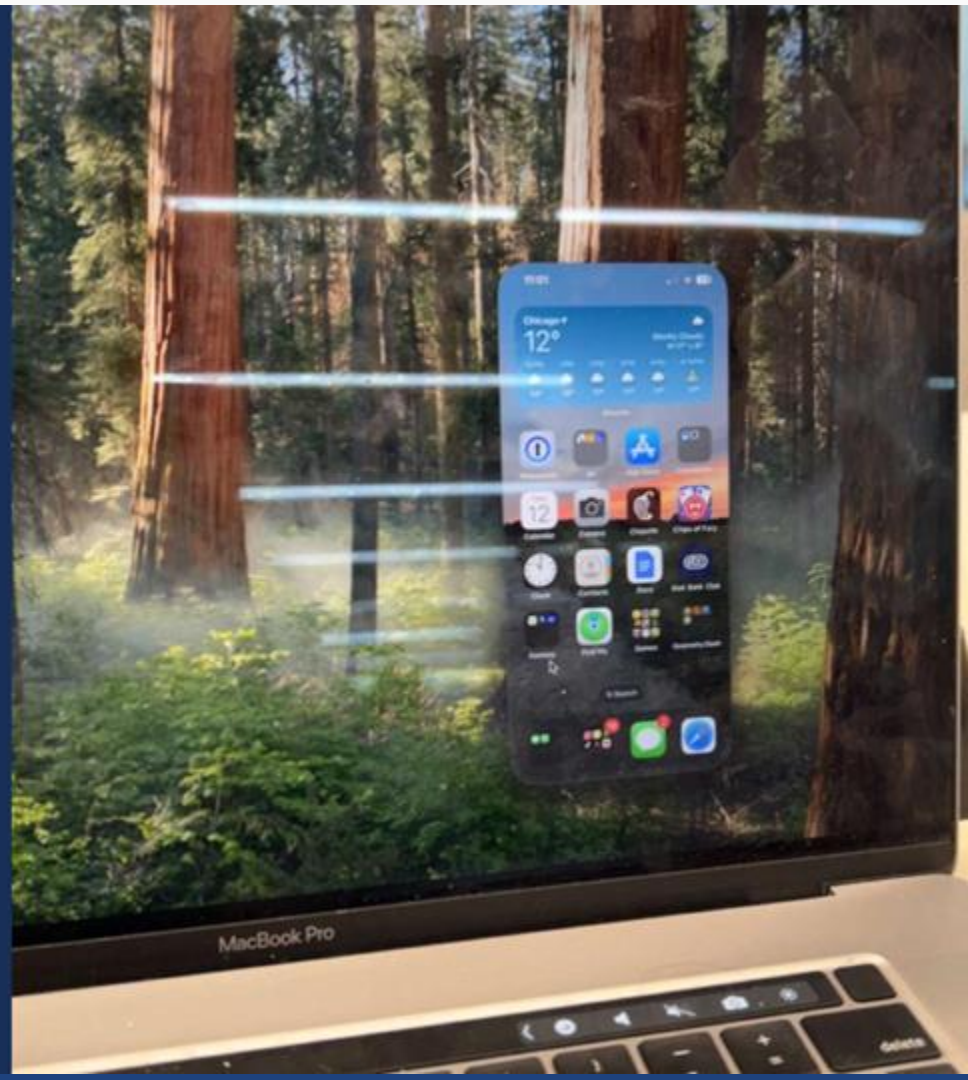

Opinions

Phone Mirroring: The Loophole to Phone Boxes

Miles Heltzer, Arts Editor

February 4, 2025

Conclusion